Dresden, picturesquely located at the banks of the river Elbe, is well known for its baroque architecture with Zwinger, the Royal palace, Italian village, Japanese Palace, Pillnitz palace, the Semper Opera house and its bridges.

It is one of the main centres for (problem) chess in Germany, well remembered for hosting the 38th Chess Olympiad in 2008.

Travelling

By plane. Dresden International airport is connected to many national and international destinations and airport hubs including Barcelona, Bourgas, Düsseldorf, Frankfurt, London, Moscow, Stuttgart and Zurich. Further options include Leipzig and Berlin airports.

By train. Dresden central railway station is 10min by taxi or 15min by public transport.

By car. Dresden is connected by three motorways. The nearest exit is 5 min from the hotel.

Wyndham Garden Hotel is well experienced in hosting chess events:

- annual ZMDI Chess Open, 200 participants
- European Senior Teams Championship 2012
- World Chess Championship for Disabled 2013
- World Senior Teams Championship 2015

Situated in a quiet residential suburb it is only a short bus ride away from the historical centre with all main tourist attractions and many restaurants.

It is a typical conference hotel with 230 rooms in two categories: standard (free WLAN, sauna, spa and fitness centre) and superior (also air conditioning, free underground parking).

Room rates for the championship are

	Single	Double	Triple
Standard	69 EUR	84 EUR	121.50 EUR
Superior	79 EUR	94 EUR	131.50 EUR

plus city tax. Please mention the code DLM2016 when booking with the hotel.

Accommodation is also available nearby at Klosterhof (<http://www.dresden-klosterhof.de/>) and Leubnitzer Höhe (<http://www.leubnitzer-hoehe.de/>)
