I received 49 anonymous diagrams in a PGN file from director Aleksey Oganessian.

The general level of the entries was very high with many interesting and original ideas and lots of fighting chess. Thanks due to Harold van der Heijden and Gady Costeff for their kind assistance in checking my candidates for soundness and anticipations. Unfortunately I had to eliminate a few serious candidates for high distinctions:

- D15. Dual 3. ♖e2 ♘d4+ 4. ♖f2 ♘d3+ 5. ♖g2 ♜:b1 6. ♖g8+ ♖b4 7. ♖:g5 ♜g1+ 8. ♖:g1 ♘f3+ 9. ♖f1 ♘:g5 10. b3 =;

- D38. Duals 3. ♖h5/3. ♖h7;

- D42. A couple of lines are not sufficiently clarified, for instance: 6... ♖c6!? 7. ♙d2 b4 8. ♙:b4 ♖b5 9. ♙d6 ♖c4 10. ♙:f4 ♖:d4 etc.

I would like to express my appreciation and gratitude to all participants for their sincere efforts to create a quality contest of high standard.

Brilliant sacrificial anti-stalemate play on an open board, with the heavy cannons absolutely free. The battery Rook-pawn is created already in the first move to trap the black queen by checking her king should he move to the sixth rank. Following an amazing journey highlighted by 6.Rf5!! the very same rook eventually lands on the other side of the very same pinning line to complete the initial job by role exchanges with the pawn in regards to the enemy royal couple. A highly original concept presented in an exemplary setting. A remarkable achievement!

A well-constructed Rook ending with an original reciprocal zugzwang mechanism and a fine play of capture refusals.

Slow excelsior of the "g" pawn with underpromotion and echo of the final play in variation I!

This product of modern technology introduces an amazing discovery: three times Festina Lente (a gradual pawn's starting move) combined with Excelsior that ends up in a minor promotion (with an echo-one in a side-line!). Curiously five of the six men are in their initial squares at such an advanced stage of the game.

A memorable super miniature!
