A bit unbalanced; a strange way to give black a move (f2) avoiding zugzwang [JB].

Two pairs of pieces (nSf6/nSe5 and bRh5/bBh4) exchange functions. The order of moves is nicely forced, justifying the usage of three neutral pieces.

Grimshaw interference + Baltic theme. Full harmony.

Leaving along the ligament line of the neutral figure frees up the field for the rebirth of the black pawn. This is accompanied by the untying of the black figure, which immediately self-connects (both times in the same field). And it all ends with the return of a neutral linear figure.
